NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

November 3-9, 2024

“My vocation, at last I have found it;
my vocation is love.”

— St. Therese of Lisieux

Frn

Father, we are your people, the work of your hands.
So precious are we in your sight that you sent your Son, Jesus.
Jesus calls us to heal the broken-hearted,
to dry the tears of those who mourn, to give hope to those who despair,
and to rejoice in your steadfast love.
We, the baptized, realize our call to serve. Help us to know how.
Call forth from among us priests, sisters, brothers and lay ministers.
With our hearts you continue to love your people.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.
Amen

The Diocese of Pueblo is seeking a Human Resource Manager.

About Us

The Diocese of Pueblo is an energetic place of employment filled with strong Catholic faith. We are building the body of Christ through each of our ministries. We empower our team to work spiritually and at their best. If you are a self-motivated individual and interested in growing spiritually using your talent and experience, come join our team!

What you will be doing

The Human Resource Manager will lead and direct the routine functions of the Human Resources (HR) department and is responsible for coordinating all administrative activities related to personnel. This position is responsible for developing recruitment strategies, implementing systems for managing benefits, job design, performance, compliance, workers compensation, and leaves of absence. The HR manager serves as a link between management and employees and advises other managers on human resources issues.

Applications for this position will be accepted until January 28, 2025.
